

2010 Alamos Syrah

The 2010 Alamos Syrah shows a bright purple color with violet highlights. The nose is full of rich black fruit aromas, light earth notes and a touch of roasted coffee. The mouthfeel is full and sweet, with juicy black cherry fruit and a touch of chocolate and sweet spice from light oak aging. The finish is long and lingering, with ripe, velvety tannins.

VARIETAL:
100% Syrah

VINTAGE:
2010

VINEYARDS:
Uco Valley

ALTITUDE:
3,380' elevation

FERMENTATION:
undefined

AGING:
7-9 months in French and American oak

ALCOHOL:
13.5% vol

TOTAL ACIDITY/PH:
5.2/3.8

RESIDUAL SUGAR:
2.8 g/l

Prova da safra 2008. Fraldinha ao forno com batatas. Almoço em 11/06/2014.