

<http://www.slurp.co.uk/red-wine/argentinean-red-wine/14675-michel-torino-coleccion-merlot-2010/>

Michel Torino Coleccion Merlot 2010

Country: Argentina
Region: Calchaqui Valley
Grape: Merlot
Volume: 75cl
Style: Velvety and Fruity
ABV: 13.5%

This wine comes from the Bodega El Esteco winery in the Salta province of Argentina. The winery was created in 1892 under the name Michel Torino Bros La Rosa Wineries. In 1994, it was sold to Félix Lávaque, a winemaker who in turn sold it to a Swiss group that gave the company the image it has today: a premium winemaker. The Coleccion Merlot has a light purple red tone with a ripe blackberries, mint scents and coffee tones on the nose. This is highly fruity wine with sweet tannins, the palate shows peaches, red peppers and mint. A great match to duck, wild game or beef dishes and an excellent accompaniment to blue cheese.

Our price £8.05 (inc VAT)

Boeuf bourguignon, batatas gratinadas, arroz e rúcula da horta. Almoço com a Turma da Praia, na Casa de Campo, em 08 de março de 2011.